Notice of Project: Demolition of 66 Peter St. S., Orillia (Former OPP Detachment)

The City will be proceeding with the demolition of the former OPP Detachment and adjacent buildings located at 66 Peter St. S. in Orillia. This demolition is scheduled to commence the week of July 26, 2021 with an estimated completion date of Sept. 1, 2021.

A construction fence will be erected on the property line surrounding the perimeter of the property for the duration of the project and pre-cast concrete jersey barriers will be placed and remain at all laneway entrances and exists at the close-out of the project.

All demolition activities will occur in accordance with the Ontario Building Code as specified in the demolition permit and the City of Orillia's Noise By-Law (Orillia By-Law Chapter 938 – Noise).

The current Lot 3 permit parking will not be affected. The works to convert the site to permit parking will commence upon full completion of the demolition. Questions about this project can be directed to Kyle Cox, Facilities Manager, at 705-325-2395.
