

Highlights from the Council Chamber

Special Council Meeting – Oct. 31, 2022

Below are highlights of what Council adopted at its meeting on Monday, Oct. 31, 2022.

The following includes changes or recorded votes to recommendations from the Oct. 31, 2022 Special Council Committee meeting. The wording below does not represent the exact wording of the motion and is meant as highlights of what was adopted.

- Further to the Public Meeting of Council held on October 3, 2022, Council approved Zoning By-law Amendment Application No. D14-919 (Trustees of Regent Park United Church of Canada - 175 Oxford Street) as set out in the Supplementary Memo dated October 25, 2022 from the Development Services and Engineering Department.

The following are recommendations from the Special Council Committee meeting on Oct. 31, 2022 that were adopted by Council with no changes on Oct. 31, 2022.

- The report from the Corporate Services Department regarding a standard approach to the application of rates for Not-for-Profit entities that lease municipal real property was received. Policy 1.7.1.1. - Real Property will be amended as set out in Schedule "A" to the report.
- The feasibility of implementing a pedestrian crossing treatment across Coldwater Road West between Emily Street and Cameron Street was referred to Budget Committee for consideration as part of the 2023 Budget deliberations.
- The feasibility of establishing transit fares for seniors, as well as options and opportunities to increase ridership on the City's transit system including potential programs/incentives/initiatives available via the cOnnect Transit Pass system, transit fare opportunities and increased marketing campaigns was referred to Budget Committee for consideration as part of the 2023 Budget deliberations.
- The feasibility and costs associated with severing the City-owned property located at 26 Benner Street to create a lot for affordable housing was referred to Budget Committee as part of the 2023 Budget deliberations.
- The report from the Corporate Services Department regarding the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2021 was received as information.

The full agendas for the Oct. 31, 2022 meetings, which includes the full detailed reports, are available on the City's website at orillia.ca.