

Public Art

Orillia's public art collection is growing! Take a tour around the City to check out these pieces.

The City releases a call for artists at various times throughout the year. Do you have a public art project in mind? The Art in Public Places Committee has an application process it administers on behalf of the City of Orillia and takes in proposals year-round. To learn more, visit orillia.ca/publicart.

1. Gordon Lightfoot Bust
Orillia Opera House
Gino Cavicchioli

2. 150 Mural
Bakes by the Lakes Exterior
Paul Baxter

3. A Century of Memories Exhibit
Orillia Opera House
James Pauk Photography

4. Spring Thaw Lake Couchiching
Peter Street Alleyway
Tanya Cunnington & Bewabon Shilling

5. Golden Leaves: A Tribute to Gordon Lightfoot
J.B. Tudhope Memorial Park
Timothy Schmalz

6. Wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald
J.B. Tudhope Memorial Park
Timothy Schmalz

7. Black Day in July
J.B. Tudhope Memorial Park
Timothy Schmalz

8. Begg Memorial
Couchiching Beach Park
Allan Cameron

9. Leaping Deer
Victoria Park
Elizabeth Wyn Wood

10. Adrift in Time
Orillia City Centre, 1st Floor
Laura Carter

11. Mariposa Memories Mural
Orillia City Centre, 1st Floor
Daniel Greene

12. Totem Pole
Rotary Place
Unknown Artist

13. Weirs Story Pole
Port of Orillia
Lawrence Boyer

14. A New Day
Orillia City Centre, 3rd Floor
Dave Beckett

15. Papillio Planta
J.B. Tudhope Memorial Park
Robert Doan

16. The Stack Gallery
Orillia Recreation Centre
Rotating Artists

17. Inspired: The Road to Gold
Orillia Recreation Centre
Craig Mainprize

New Exhibit

Coming this March, the Art in Public Places committee is set to launch its newest exhibit, The Mechanics of Life, at the Orillia Recreation Centre. Visit orillia.ca/publicart for details.

